The annual meeting of the corporation will be held at four o'clock on the afternoon of Tuesday the thirteenth day of October, 1885 in the Reception Room in the City Hall in Portland, for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year and for transacting such other business as may legally be presented.

ECZEMA!

For the benefit of suffering humanity I ... it my duty to give this unsolicited testimony in favor of Swift's Specific. My wife has been afflicted with hereditary Eczema or Salt Rheum from her infancy. It has increased in intensity with each succeeding spring and being somewhat skillful in medicine myself I tried every remedy I could think of for years—Sarsaparilla combined with every form of potash ... but ... all gave only temporary relief. During the spring of 1884 her lower extremities became so inflamed and sore that she was obliged to keep them constantly ... with a covering of "Fuller's Earth" mixed ... to try on. Among ... she was afflicted with a period of nervous ... recurring regularly every seven days and ... followed by an intermittent fever ... for weeks at a time ... her life became a burden to her.

This spring I determined that she should take S. S. S. and follow strictly the directions in regard to food, diet, etc. This was about seven weeks ago. After taking the first large bottle the disease seemed to increase the burning, itching and inflammation became unbearable. She however persevered in the use of the medicine. After taking the second bottle the inflammation began to subside. After the third bottle the inflammation disappeared and sore spots dried up and turned white and scaly and then she brushed them off ... taking the sixth bottle three ... four times daily. Every appearance of the disease has gone, and her flesh is becoming soft, white and smooth again, and what is more, her periodical ... have disappeared and she is now at 53 years of age, enjoying the only good health she has known for upwards of 40 years. No wonder she declares with emphasis that every bottle of S. S. S. is worth a thousand times its weight in gold.

Any further information concerning her case will be cheerfully given by herself at her residence 135 Mullett street or by me.

On Saturday last, Sheriff McFadden, of Kennebec county, took to the State Prison Joel H. Allen the Oakland watch thief and Wilbur S. Wood the Gardiner murderer. Wood who is a desperado and who has got but an eight years sentence kept talking during the entire trip, pouring his grievance into every ear that would listen to him. He telegraphed to some friends at Wiscasset, where he used to work and quite a number met him at the depot there. He made considerable ... talk about not going to Thomaston after all. But the Sheriff assuring him that he had a loaded revolver and would blow a hole through him if he attempted to escape served to keep him within due bounds.

The sale of the ship Cora of Belfast, leaves but one ship hailing from that port, the ship Nancy Pendleton, and she is mostly owned in Searsport. A few years ago the large fleet of Belfast ships was the pride of its citizens, but one by one they have dropped out until the Pendleton alone remains to remind them of their former greatness in this line.

J. W. Lang, Esq., formerly of Brooks, now of Bowdoinham, was the only member of the Executive Committee of the State Grange present at the Northport festival and all the work and care came upon him and the excellent local committee, Messrs. During the past week, Mr. C. J. Hall, of this city, has closed a contract for a $100,000 job of granite work for the State capitol at Springfield, Ill. The work is to be of Somes Sound granite, and includes all the finished stone work of the building. There are two large porticos with balustrades and columns of polished stone. The columns are to be the largest ever made here, if not the largest ever cut in granite. They are to be 37½ feet high, 4½ feet in diameter and rest on bases 6¼ feet square and 4 feet high. The work of polishing and most of the cutting will be done here, but a large crew of cutters will also be employed at the quarry. The work is to be finished in about eighteen months, and during that time it will give employment to a large number of men and be the means of increasing all kinds of business here. New lathes will be made for polishing the columns, as those now in use here are not large enough, and other special machinery will be required. Work will be commenced at once.—Augusta Age.

State Fair Notes.

HOW THE COBURN CADETS ENJOY LIFE

Camp Coburn is situated at the farther end of the fair grounds and is a little village in itself. A Journal reporter found his way through the mud and water, Thursday, to the outskirts of the camp. The cold bleak wind whistled and whizzed about his ears until he was only too glad to turn his coat collar about his ears and sigh for a warming pan. The white tents pitched and swayed in the wind, threatening every moment to collapse. Three half-frozen, blue nosed cadets, wrapped in overcoats and mittens, walked back and forth on their beat, looking as if life was a burden.

"Can you tell me where the officer of the day is?" asked the Journal man.

Down came the musket to present arms, and the words "You'll haf to go around the way," came from the muffled mass. The Journal man beat a retreat, and the guard resumed his silent occupation.

A second attempt at the other end was more successful.

"Sergeant No. 1!" And up came Sergeant No. 1, with a polite salutation.

"Sergeant-a-a—"

"Sergeant Clark!" and the scribe was relieved from his embarrassing position.

"Now, Mr. Sergeant, what do you do with yourself?"

Mr. Sergeant looked at the scribe as much as to say, "Guess you don't know anything about camp life," and he was about right.

We entered the officers' tent and there found the Lieutenant wrapped in double blankets, trying to keep warm.

"Here are our rules and regulations. This is the

ORDER OF EXERCISES

Reveille,	5 45 A. M.
Police of Camp,	5 05 "
Breakfast	7 00 "
Guard Mounting,	7 30 "
Release from Camp,	8 00 "
Dinner	12 00 M.
Drill	1 00 P. M.
Recall from Drill,	2 00 "
Parade,	5 45 "
Supper immediately after parade.
Tattoo	9 30 "
Taps,	10 00 "

Think of being stirred up these cold mornings at 5 45! The Police of Camp simply means that the student "cops" inspect the camp and see to it that everybody is up. Then comes breakfast. Guard mounting needs a little explanation. The guard is divided into three reliefs—two hours on and four hours off. At 7 30 the reliefs are changed. At 8 the boys are free from duty and can roam over the grounds as they please until noon when dinner is served. Drill, parade and supper need no explanation but the tattoo does. It simply means that at 9 30 sharp all lights must be out and the camp must be quiet. Taps at 10 mean "all are supposed to be in bed—not elsewhere." And not infrequently it is elsewhere."

As the Journal scribe was inquiring the meaning of the several technical phrases in the order of exercises a good natured face with a black pipe in front of it peeked into the tent.

"How are ye, Mr. Reporter?"

It was our old friend Mr. J. O. Johnson, otherwise known as Steward Johnson, who made the Journal's sides ache last year with

BEANS AND STORIES

Mr. Reporter exchanged greetings with the genial Steward and expressed a desire to see the elephant. Mr. Steward proceeded to show it. "Cold! Cold!" and the Steward's teeth fairly chattered at the thought of it. "We're a pretty tough lot, but we had to crawl last night. It was too much for us. We couldn't sleep in the tents and bunked in Mr. Ryerson's house, yonder."

The Journal man took a look into the tents as he passed along and saw that they had not been disturbed for twenty four hours. In front of each tent three sticks were stuck into the ground and crossed like a standing basket. In these improvised stands were placed wash bowls. And it fairly made us shiver to see a cadet washing his face and hands in frigid water.

"Here's the place for you," gleefully shouted my guide as he drew back the folds of a large tent and disclosed to view the kitchen. Over a large red hot stove stood the grizzly cook up to his elbows in flour and dust. In the middle of the tent stood two cross legged tables as clean as the most fastidious housekeeper could desire. Boxes, barrels, kettles, pans, teapots, coffee-pots and all the paraphernalia of a first-class camp were scattered about in every direction.

"Where's your mess?" we asked.

"Oh, we don't mess together. When we get all ready for a meal we fill the plates, usually about a hundred, and put them on these tables, then at the tap of the drum, the boys all march by and each takes a plate. We give 'em all they want and don't squeal a mite if they come a third time. Won't you have some pork and beans? Have a doughnut and some coffee?"

The Journal was obliged to decline the kind offer but promised to call again about dinner time and asked how much food was brought.

The caterer lifted his eyes towards the ridgepole of the tent, took three or four strong whiffs on his pipe and began the list which was something as follows: One hundred pies, one barrel of doughnuts, one bushel of sugar cookies, one bushel of molasses cookies, one large cheese, half a hog, several bushels of beans (he didn't dare to say just how many), fifty weight of sugar. These are only some of the larger items.

"FAT! MY GOODNESS!"

"I never saw anything like it. We can't cook half as fast as they eat. The officer of the day details six men every meal to help me. These men are called the cook's police."

Just outside of the tent the veteran cook, Mr. Green was preparing the beans for dinner. Two large holes were dug in the ground and a fire built in each.

Two immense pots each holding eight or ten quarts, stood near by, ready to be put into the red hot coals and covered up with dirt. In the course of two or three hours they are taken out cooked to a turn and send forth an odor that makes the Journal man smack his lips.

"I never saw anything like it how those boys eat beans. Going to have them ready for dinner, Mr. Green? Beans and brown-bread. Just think of it. I never dare to tell how much they eat. Last year they eat $69 worth more than what I brought."

As we turned from the culinary department the agonizing sounds of a brass instrument came to our ears. Somebody was trying to play the and somebody else was beating a huge bass drum. This was a portion of the Orono Cornet Band, Mr. W. H. Meriam leader. A strain of "Home Sweet Home" struck the Steward and the Reporter as they approached. And just as the former threw back the folds of the tent, the manipulator of the bass drum struck the sheepskin a terrific blow, almost knocking the black pipe out of the Steward's mouth.

Only a few members of the band are students, but they usually go with the boys on their tenting excursions.

The next place we visited was the Adjutant's office where Sergeant Major Colby was making out railroad passes for the boys. Here all the correspondence is conducted and all excuses for absence are sent.

"Here is an excuse that Private Elwell sent in. You see it's sent to the captain of his company, who indorses it, and transfers it to the Adjutant's office."

Then there was Lieutenant Phillipps in another tent. The youngster seemed to enjoy it and chirped away as if there was no such thing as a hard world. The boys were reinforced, Thursday, by a small party of lady friends who seem to enjoy camp life as much as the boys. In camp, this morning, were Mrs. Johnson with her two daughters, Lieutenant Phillipps and wife, Prof. Benjamin and wife with Miss Merry and Mrs. Anderson, of Bath.

AND HIS BABY

In parting, we must give the Journal's thanks to its kind and genial friend, Steward Johnson, who has been the caterer for the Coburn boys for a great many years, and is a great favorite among them. We hope he will give us another visit next year and bring all his boys and beans with him.

ANNUAL MEETING OF THE MAINE STATE AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY, THURSDAY EVENING—A VERY LARGE ATTENDANCE—THE OLD BOARD RE-ELECTED WITH ONE EXCEPTION.

The annual meeting of the Maine State Agricultural Society, Thursday evening, was one of the largest ever held in the history of the society. The greatest unanimity of opinion prevailed. The old board of officers with the exception of the trustee from the fifth district was re-elected. The crowd arrived early, and filled the aldermen's room at the city building almost to suffocation.

The meeting was called to order at 8 15 by President Prince.

There was a demand for more chairs and the opening of business was delayed until chairs had been brought in.

The call for the meeting was read by Secretary Dennison and was followed by the presentation of the report of Henry S. Osgood, treasurer of the society.

The substance of the treasurer's report was a reading of the printed statement of the condition of the society as recently published in the Maine Farmer and already distributed among the life members and published in the daily and weekly press.

This report showed a balance of $483.

Appended to this was a statement of the assets and liabilities of the society as made up by the trustees. This statement placed the assets $11,835 in excess of liabilities. This report as published took the society up to April 9th.

Since April 9th, the receipts have been $12 034 01. Expenses $11 878 07. Balance on hand $153 34.

The receipts from the fair this week up to Thursday night amount to $11 418 01. The receipts for Thursday were estimated at $5 100.

John French, of Lewiston, asked if the item about the amount paid Henry Stewart was not an error.

Col. Osgood and others explained that the trustees' report of assets was not the amount paid for the purchase from Henry Stewart, but the amount at which it is now estimated as worth.

This question of Mr. French led to a short debate and an explanation of the figures of the treasurer.

It was voted to proceed to

THE ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

Mr. Harris of Cumberland asked to know the customary order in which the officers have been elected in previous years.

The President stated that it had been customary to elect in the order of President, Secretary, Treasurer and trustees.

Messrs. Harris of Cumberland, Davis of Androscoggin and Gen. Sheppard of Somerset, were appointed to receive, sort and count the votes.

Mr. Dunham, of Bangor, moved that the committee take a stand near the table and that the members pass around singly and each drop a vote in the hat.

This motion aroused a great commotion. Back of the semi-circle of chairs and settees in the room was a crowd of members standing. The room was packed with chairs and settees and it was almost impossible to make any passage way through the dense crowd. The crowd that was standing with peculiar unanimity favored the motion of Mr. Dunham, while the crowd in the chairs with equal unanimity opposed it.

It was put to a vote by a show of hands and decided in favor of the chairs.

Mr. Dunham of Penobscot county moved to vote by the check list.

This excited much debate.

Members indignantly asserted that they did not believe that any member in the meeting would vote wrongfully or unfairly.

Mr. Dunham pressed his motion.

The Secretary said that he had no check list.

It was finally settled that the committee pass around the hat in the usual manner.

Printed ballots were distributed for president.

They appeared to be but one candidate on the field.

During the collection of the votes a voice was heard from the outskirts of the crowd addressing the chair.

The chair recognized Mr. Jenkins of Penobscot who said:

Mr. President—Some other ... way ought to be devised for voting. I have asked several persons near if they are members of the society, and have ascertained that they are not. I myself became a life member of this society only yesterday. I do not think that the person to whom I handed the vote knew of the fact of my membership, and yet I had no trouble in voting.

Mr. Dunham again asked for the check list, and a request was made for all persons not life-members to leave the room. The vote was taken.

FOR PRESIDENT

the committee passing their hats.

The vote was declared as follows:

Whole number of votes	205
Rufus Prince had	201
Scattering	4

Hon. Rufus Prince was declared elected President.

Mr. Prince said in response to ... of the meeting:

Gentlemen—I wish to say a word here and but a word. I will say that when I became president of this society it was a weak and puny thing and I had a hesitancy in assuming the duties for I felt that it was a matter of little trouble to manage its affairs. But gentlemen we have seen the society grow and to-day its duties and its labors are so heavy that I honestly say that I shrink from them. I all have some doubt as to whether I would ever again accept the position, but as you have so unanimously called me I will accept, and unless I greatly mistake my own mind, for the last time. I have been president of the society for ten years. I felt that I wanted to see it grow up and be the best society in New England. I have seen it grow to be such and I am satisfied. I wish you gentlemen to look about you this coming year, and find some one to fill my space and a good deal to spare. You will have no trouble in doing it. In the meantime I will try to fill the position to the best of my ability. [Applause]

The meeting proceeded to vote for secretary. The ballot was taken and was declared as follows:

Whole number of votes,	271
Necessary for a choice	136
A. L. Dennison,	133
Henry M. Sprague	138

A. L. Dennison was declared elected.

Mr. Dunbar—I wish to nominate for the position of treasurer a man who has done more for the agricultural interests of Maine than any other man in Maine. I nominate Hall C. Burleigh, of Hallowell, and will support him with a written ballot.

Mr. Burleigh arose and declined the nomination, saying that the society had a very able treasurer and one who it is given a clear and impartial report.

Voted to proceed to ballot.

FOR TREASURER

The ballot was taken and declared as follows:

Whole number of votes,	222
Necessary for a choice	112
Henry S. Osgood had	131
C. I. Barker,	64
Edw. C. Cobb,	25

Col. H. S. Osgood was declared elected.

For the election of trustees it was decided best to divide into districts, each to nominate its candidate.

The following trustees were nominated and elected:

First District, Alonzo Libby, of Saccarappa; Third District, Benj. Hilton, of North Anson; Fourth District, ... G. Jerrard, of Levant; Fifth District, Geo. E. Brackett, Belfast.

W. D. Pennell and S. F. Merrill were elected auditors.

The meeting discussed the subject of life-membership tickets and adjourned at 10.15.

A CHANCE TO WIN $500
The results from the use of the extract of the South American Moxie Nerve Food Plant, have excited medical and observing New England the last ten weeks as never before. We are a people with worn out nerves, abused with stimulants, drugs, morphine, severe mental labor, excitement and sexual excesses. This food can recover the whole field. Though harmless as milk, hundreds of cases, weeks in Lowell alone, it has recovered 305 cases of nervous and mental exhaustion from one to twenty years standing. Some were helpless, two mentally imbecile, three had paralysis, one was blind. Two cases of insanity were cured in Boston, but the friends will not allow use of names both in high life. It makes healthy people clear-headed, vigorous and able to stand twice their usual labor with less fatigue. Continued, it hinders exhaustion of brain and nerves from excessive labor. It stops nervousness, and gives an immense appetite. Lowell alone, has taken 33,000 bottles in ten weeks. As we have no room for testimonials we offer $500 to any person who can show our statements to be untrue. Eleven old drunkards say it stops the rum thirst. For sale by all apothecaries and grocers. 35 cents a quart bottle, $3 50 a dozen. Double extracts 50 cents, and $5.00 a dozen. People say it is the best beverage in America. The Kind of Men Republicans Delight to Honor.

The Republican State ticket is remarkable for its uniform excellence. Every man on it is not only unobjectionable, but has a positive fitness for the office for which he is named. It is a long time since either party in this State has put before the voters a list of names for which an honest man could take a greater pleasure in voting than he can for this. What is the meaning of it all? Why, simply that the discipline to which the Independent voters subjected the Republican party last year has done its managers a vast amount of good. If there had been no revolt last year, there would have been no such ticket as this now.

Our Saratoga correspondent says that the delegates who came together with no very sanguine hopes of victory, separated with the general belief that their ticket would be elected because it deserved success—that is, because they had acted in such a way as to win back the voters whom they drove away last year. They had let the Convention run itself and they have treated the voters of the State to the extraordinary spectacle of a ticket which has not on it a single man that was put there by machine influence or through the familiar agency of a "deal." The Independent voters may well plume themselves upon the good effect of their "recreancy." Instead of being hounded from the party as traitors, they have been permitted to dictate its nomination of the party's entire ticket.—New York Evening Post

There are just two elements of interest in the foregoing proclamation of the organ of New York Mugwumpism. First that the Republicans of New York have nominated a State ticket of which the most spiteful and malignant enemy of the party is compelled to admit that "every man on it is not only unobjectionable, but has a positive fitness for the office for which he is named."

The second point is the egotistic and astonishing claim that the selection of men of that character is extraordinary and entirely due to the discipline to which the Independent voters subjected the Republican party last year. Says the modest Mugwump: "If there had been no revolt last year there would have been no such ticket nominated this year."

The egregious and monumental folly and impudence of this claim are almost incredible in the face of the perfectly plain and familiar fact that every man on that Republican ticket has previously and repeatedly been selected and officially honored by the Republican party, and that every one of them was a conspicuous figure in the regular Republican line of battle last year.

Hon. Ira Davenport, the candidate for Governor, has been repeatedly elected to the Legislature, in 1881 was elected Comptroller, and in 1884 was elected to Congress, always as the regular candidate of the Republican party.

Gen. Joseph B. Carr, the candidate for Lieutenant Governor, has been similarly recognized as a leading Republican, and was elected at the head of the Republican ticket in 1883 as Secretary of State, which office he holds to-day.

Hon. James W. Wadsworth, the candidate for Comptroller, was elected to that office as the regular Republican candidate as far back as 1879, and in 1882 was elected as a regular Republican Representative to the 48th Congress.

Col. Anson S. Wood, the candidate for Secretary of State, has for years been the accomplished Republican Deputy in that office, and his eloquent voice has been heard in more than one State as a champion of the cause of the Republican party.

Hon. Edward B. Thomas, the candidate for Attorney General, has twice been nominated and elected by the Republicans to the highest branch of the State Legislature.

Mr. Ulrich, the candidate for State Treasurer, is now holding the important office of State Emigration Commissioner under appointment by that sturdy Republican Governor Alonzo B. Cornell, and Mr. Van Rensselaer, the candidate for State Engineer, was from 1880 to 1883 Deputy Superintendent of Public Works under that stalwart Republican Silas B. Dutcher.

It thus appears that this ticket of uniform excellence, which is claimed to have been dictated by the Mugwumps, is entirely composed of men whom the Republican party has for years been nominating and electing to the highest offices in the State. In other words the Evening Post's transparent ego[illegible] becomes a clumsy tribute to the excellent character of the candidates that the Republican party has been habitually presenting for the suffrages of the people.

We will call the attention of the Post to one other significant fact, viz: that five of the seven candidates named, enjoyed the benefit of a practical Republican training of service in defence of the life of the Nation, while one was too young to enlist, and the other has borne a principal part in founding a home for disabled soldiers. The Post will be obliged to see that the ticket comes of good Republican stock, and also that it shows the decided preference of the Republican party for the men who were loyal to their country when it was in its direst peril.

"Condoning Villany."

The Boston Record, which is a sort of alias for the Boston Advertiser, has seen fit to base an editorial upon the report that at the dinner recently given at the State Fair "the same table received ex-Governor Garcelon, head counter out in the Maine 'steal,' and Captain Boutelle and others who piled adjectives knee-deep above Dr. Garcelon's head," and it says: "The question comes up whether the act of Garcelon and his associates was painted "too darkly at the time of the count-out, "or whether, like many others these guests "were suddenly overcome by the temptation which good food invariably presents "at a fair. From ancient times, even before Maine was a State, breaking bread "together has been a token of amity. Is "the past forgiven, or was it merely a "truce of hungry warriors?"

The foregoing, which was copied in the Commercial under the caption quoted at the head of this writing, requires but brief reply. The editor of the Boston Record was in Maine at the time of the counting-out rascality, as the correspondent of the Advertiser, and since then has occupied for a time the position of editorial conductor of the Portland Press, so that he ought to know something of the character of the State "Steal" villany and whether it was "painted too darkly." But if he has any doubts as to the opinion of the editor of THE WHIG on that point, we can very promptly relieve them by the assurance that the infamy of that conspiracy against popular Government has never been painted in colors adequately dark and can never be too severely denounced by honest men.

Without assuming to know what customs prevail in the circles to which the editor of the Record finds access, we will state that in Maine it is not customary for the guests to select the company to which they may be bidden, nor is it understood here that to be included in a list of invitations to a dinner commits one to an indorsement or approval of the character and career of all who may be present. We have an impression that Capt. Boutelle, who is singled out by name in the editorial referred to, may have found himself on occasion at the same banquet table with the editor of the Record, but Capt. Boutelle probably would not care to be twitted of it by the newspapers. And while he may feel restrained from criticising the judgment of his hosts as to the proper recipients of their courtesies, he does not think the Boston Record for using so insufficient a pretext for coupling his name with that of a Governor of Maine who has dishonored the office and disgraced the State.

The Democratic Idea.

The "Blue and Gray" clap-trap by which it has been attempted through appeals to a morbid sympathy to put rebellion and treason on a basis of equality with loyalty and patriotism, found its culmination Friday in the New York Democratic State Convention. With an eye to the melodrama so much relied upon in these "Blue and Gray" episodes, Roger A. Pryor, an ex-Confederate, but for many years a Democratic lawyer in New York city, was selected to present the following:

Resolved, That with profound sorrow the Democracy of the State of New York lament the death of the inflexible patriot and invincible soldier, Ulysses S. Grant, of whose illustrious career we recognize the fitting crown and consummation in his dying invocation of peace and good will between the heroes he led and the heroes he conquered.

The report says this was adopted with applause, and it would really be difficult to see how any ex-Rebel or other Democrat could object to a respectful mention of General Grant or those terms which concede to the "heroes" of rebellion entire equality with the "heroes" of the Union.

To this complexion does it come at last. That is precisely the end which has been aimed at since the insidious beginning of the mischievous gush that would obliterate all distinctions between the actions of those who offered their lives in defence of their country and of Freedom, and those who fought to destroy the Government and perpetuate Slavery.

The patriotic spirit of the people will not thank the New York Democracy for its tardy tribute to the great loyal chieftain when it takes the form of shading with treason the glory of its own defeat.

Trouble in the Democratic Camp.

Before the ink was fairly dry on the pages of the Democratic papers proclaiming to the country that the party in the Empire State had placed in the field a strong ticket, was thoroughly united, harmonious and looking forward to victory, a bombshell was exploded in the camp that has caused widespread consternation. The Hon. Roswell P. Flower has kicked over the traces, and in a letter published elsewhere declines the nomination for Lieutenant Governor. Flower aspired to the first place on the ticket, and for months has been working up a boom. But when the convention met Flower was quietly laid on the shelf and Gov. Hill walked off with the coveted prize. When it came to filling the second place, Ottendorfer, Slocum and Hewitt were each in turn urged to permit the use of their names in order to strengthen the ticket and overcome as far as possible the bad feeling engendered by the nomination of Hill. These gentlemen all declined, however, and then the "barl" of Mr. Flower loomed up with all its proportions and he was given the nomination. This was accepted as a happy solution of the difficulty, Flower's political ambition having in the past made him an easy victim in the hands of the wire pullers who have repeatedly been supplied by him with the funds necessary to debauch the voters. The action of the convention in refusing to give Mr. Flower what he really wanted, and then as a last resort throwing him this sop in order to secure from him material aid in the campaign, has aroused a feeling of resentment which has only been slumbering in his massive bosom since his Presidential boom was ruthlessly exploded in the last campaign, and he seems to have adopted this course to pay up old scores. Some idea of the distressing effect of his letter in the Democratic camp may be obtained from the following Albany despatch to the Boston Sunday Herald:

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 26. Flower's letter declining the nomination for Lieutenant-Governor is a blow in the pit of the Democratic stomach, and Democrats agree that he has taken this rare opportunity to drive his knife into the ticket with an especially vicious twist in revenge for past humiliation. Gov. Hill's first knowledge of Flower's course was from an evening newspaper, and a thunder bolt launched from the clear sky into the executive chamber could not have produced a profounder effect. In his anger, Flower did not even first notify the Governor, but rushed with his letter to the Associated Press wires. The news soon spread through town, and in a short time there gathered at the executive chamber in consultation with Gov. Hill, State Treasurer Maxwell, Senator Murphy, Mr. Muller, the Governor's political manager, Congressman Spinola, and a few others. Ex-Mayor Edward Murphy, a particular friend of both Hill and Flower, came down from Troy a few minutes later.

While no conclusion was reached so far as could be found out, the disposition of the Democratic leaders is to bow down before the golden calf and beg Mr. Flower to save his party by changing his mind and taking the nomination. His letter leaves a small hole, it will be observed, through which he can be pulled back on the ticket again on the plea that he alone can save the party. Secretary Manning will probably be asked to get down on his knees with other Democrats and supplicate Flower. Flower's letter is the more startling as it is understood that he imposed as a condition of the presentation of his name in the convention that there should be a union on local ticket in New York. To this representatives of Tammany, Irving Hall and the County Democracy agreed in consultation with him. Attorney General O'Brien left for Watertown this afternoon.

The recklessness with which the Commercial alarmed and excited not only this community but those within reach by telephone and mail, by parading with flaming headlines and in double-leaded type the explicit announcement of the commission of a horrible murder only a few miles from the city, giving the name of the victim and the alleged disposition of the remains, could only be equalled by the coolness with which in next day's issue it flippantly descants upon the tendency to exaggerate rumors, while in so doing it unconsciously, as it would seem, reveals the fact that it had no information whatever on which to base a sensation of the most startling character. The almost audible chuckle with which it relates how the police and the reporters of the "morning sheet" were sent on a long chase to hunt down the falsehood of its report so as to reassure a wantonly alarmed community, indicates its slight appreciation of the offence committed.

In connection with the nomination of Gov. Hill, the New York Times, one of the thick and thin Cleveland organs, says:

Possessed with the spirit of Beelzebub and led by Tammany Hall, the New York Democracy has rushed violently down a steep place into the sea. The choking will be attended to on the 3d of November.

The nomination by the Democratic party of a trickster and demagogue like David B. Hill to be Governor of the greatest State in the Union, is indeed an act of such amazing political insanity as to be satisfactorily explainable only on the theory of some malign spirit entering into the multitude of delegates.

Why is not this a good opportunity for the Commercial to publish the above in connection with one of its gushing puffs of the political wisdom of the New York Times?

The State fires the following hot shot: "The Boston Advertiser, which costs twenty-four cents per week, whereas the State modestly claims only five—says if Blaineism is the bone and sinew of the Republican party then the party is 'structurally unsound.' That the policy of the Advertiser, in opposing Blaineism, has been structurally unsound, for that journal, is a most pregnant fact to its stockholders."

It is not known whether Mr. Roswell P. Flower should be credited to Jefferson County or New York city. In view of Mr. Flower's devotion to the cause of Harmony and his efforts to allay faction and strife it would be no more than appropriate to credit him to the State at large. No pent-up county contracts his powers—the whole boundless Empire State is his.—New York World.

After the World reads Mr. Flower's letter declining to accept the nomination on the Democratic ticket it will probably revise the above opinion, which appears to be more flattering than correct. Mr. Flower is now looking for gore instead of harmony.

Let us see. How long is it since the Democratic papers were all quoting General Grant's generous words to his former foes and invoking anathemas upon the head of any man who should dare to "revive" sectional feeling. Now we have Fitz Hugh Lee riding at the head of a cavalry troop through Virginia on the saddle used by his uncle, Robert E. Lee, head of the rebel army, and working the trappings of the Lost Cause for all they are worth in the Virginia campaign.

The Portland Press says: "The Hon. Joseph Titcomb of Kennebunk, the Hon. John B. Redman, of Ellsworth, George F. Emery, Esq., and the Hon. William G. Davis of this city, are mentioned in connection with the Collectorship. The feeling grows stronger that the President is likely to appoint neither Gen. Anderson nor Judge Cleaves, and in the interest of harmony to look elsewhere."

There was a good deal of sound healthful advice in the speeches of Mr. Blaine, Senator Hale and Congressman Boutelle at Lewiston Thursday.—Portland Press.

SILSBY'S PIANO, ORGAN AND FURNITURE POLISH.

The attention of the public is respectfully called to the above Polish. Having been used and thoroughly tested for several years in the Music Rooms of Mr. Silsby, it is confidently recommended as being much superior to anything else in the market. Its special points of superiority over all other polishes are as follows, viz:

1st—It is perfectly harmless and will not penetrate or injure the most delicate wood or highly polished surface.

2d—It readily cleanses the surface and when rubbed dry, forms a thin, hard coating, which we believe has not been equalled in durability or in brilliancy of lustre!

3d—It is easily applied.

The great importance of using an ingredient that will successfully destroy the penetrating elements which are used in the various kinds of polish, cannot fail to be appreciated.

Do not fail to try a bottle. You will certainly never allow yourself to be without it after once giving it a trial!

Ask your Grocer for Silsby's Polish. PRICE 25 CENTS. The trade are requested to write for special prices by the dozen or gross.

GENERAL GRANT.

One of our contemporaries tells a story of General Grant, which, whether true or not, has in it a moral worth saying. It is to the effect that Grant, while President, was frequently importuned by life insurance agents to insure his life, but always declined, under the plea that if he died his family were already provided for. Very few men in the possession of fortune think there is likely to be an end to it all, and yet in Grant's case the end came before his death. All had been the fund raised for his family depend upon the solvency of the estate of the man who guaranteed the investment. There have been so many of these conspicuous cases of men who were in their own estimation and in the general belief beyond the reach of want, and who have yet seen their possessions take wings, that there are few who at this day will deny the usefulness of life insurance to themselves or to any one. The life insurance policy has stood so long between the family and want that the scoffer no longer flouts it, and has learned to respect the man who brings its blessings to his hearthstone.—[Underwriter.

INDIANA

More Forged Township Warrants.

Indianapolis Sept 26. The excitement over the forged township orders is growing daily, as fresh revelations are made. Thomas C Hewitt, of Chicago, arrived yesterday with a large amount of township orders endorsed by Pollard, $15,000 of them purporting to have been issued by Trussell Kitz, of this township. Hewitt says he came to see if the orders were genuine, but the trustees pronounce them forgeries in all essential features. They are precisely like $35,000 worth of warrants held by the defunct Kernings County Bank, which have already been pronounced forgeries.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS.

Mr. Flower Declines the Nomination for Lieutenant Governor.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Sept. 26. Mr. Flower has just mailed the following letter:

To. Hon. George Raines, Chairman of the late Democratic State Convention

DEAR SIR: I have learned with regret that the convention over which you lately presided has seen fit to honor me, in opposition to my well known wishes, with the nomination for the position of Lieutenant Governor of the State, on the ground that my nomination is necessary to the success of the State ticket. While I fully appreciate the cordial and unanimous manner in which this nomination is tendered and the sincerity of the sentiment of the nomination, I cannot think the success of the party can be in any way endangered by the presence or absence of the name of any individual upon its ticket, or that there is any necessity for me to take upon myself the serious duties of a position for which I have no inclination.

It would be assuming a merit and virtue which I do not possess, to believe, for an instant, that I am more potent to assist the party in this matter than other men who are better qualified by nature and disposition for the office The principles of the Democracy, as set out in our platform, the splendid nominations to other places on the ticket, and the record of the party, both in the State and Nation, will, in my opinion, carry us to victory. Assuring you, therefore, of my hearty support from the ranks, I respectfully but positively decline the preferment tendered

THE OHIO CAMPAIGN

Judge Foraker Challenges Governor Hoadly to a Joint Discussion.

COLUMBUS, O, Sept 27 The following correspondence has passed between the Republican and Democratic State Executive Committees on the subject of a joint debate between Judge Foraker and Gov Hoadly

COLUMBUS, O, Sept 26, 1885
Hon Thomas E Powell, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee

Dear Sir—I have just received from Judge Foraker the following, which explains itself In accordance therewith I hereby repeat his challenge for a joint discussion with Gov Hoadly and request an early conference for the arrangement of details

(Signed) A S Bushnell
Chairman

DAYTON, Ohio, Sept 26
Hon A S Bushnell, Chairman

Dear Sir—I telegraphed you last night from Paulding, asking you to challenge Gov Hoadly to a joint discussion of the issues involved in this campaign I knew nothing of what had since transpired until this moment, when on my arrival I am handed telegraphic copies of the correspondence that has been passed between the committees Because of the circumstances at Paulding leading to the challenge I desired a debate between Gov Hoadly and myself, but the Democratic Committee seem unwilling to consent except on condition that Dr Leonard be also brought into the discussion

I have already declined a debate between Dr Leonard and myself, and I have no control of him, but you are hereby authorized and requested to immediately repeat my challenge to the Democratic Committee, and to say to them that if Gov Hoadly insists on the aid of Dr Leonard, I waive all objection to his coming into the discussion, but I shall expect him to come upon the invitation of Gov Hoadly and that Governor Hoadly shall share his time with him If this be accepted, please arrange at once for a series of meetings I suggest not less than four

Very Truly, etc

BANGOR'S SEWER SYSTEM. City Engineer Coombs has just completed a fine chart of the sewer system of the city, showing sewers already built and those proposed. It will cost about $100,000 to complete the mains, and thus perfect the system as projected. The city expends about $18,000 a year on general sewer work, and so the mains do not come along very fast. The improved system outlined on the Engineer's chart would have two main sewers, one from Curve street, through Harlow and Exchange to low-water mark off the foot of the latter, and the other from the foot of Hammond street to low-water mark at the foot of Broad street. These would take the sewerage from those laterals on the east and west sides which now empty into the Kenduskeag stream, and [illegible] a great sanitary advance would be accomplished. About a dozen sewers now discharge into the Kenduskeag, whereas none ought to. Engineer Coombs recommends that more work be done on the mains and less on the laterals.

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Augusta P. Spofford

A correspondent in Bucksport sends us the following.

Mrs. Augusta Parker, wife of Mr. Frederick Spofford, one of our oldest citizens, died on Friday, September 25th, of paralysis of the brain. She was born in Billerica, Mass., Jan. 14th, 1814, and in her youth came to Bucksport as a pupil in the school for young ladies, under the charge of Mrs. E. G. Little then so well known in this section. Later Mrs. Parker became a teacher in the school, and doubtless many of the former scholars will recall her gentle, unassuming character and refined manners In 1839 she married Mr. Spofford, and the home life commenced, for so many years unbroken, except by the marriages of the son and daughter, until within a few months when sickness invaded its precincts, clouding the brain of its mistress and ending in the eternal rest into which she has entered. A woman retiring by nature and shrinking from public notice, who dearly loved her home and found her chief happiness in promoting that of her loved ones. She was faithful in every department of her life work, and beloved by all who knew her intimately, while greatly esteemed in the community, as one ready at all times to do her part in it. Always social and friendly, with a pleasant word for all, she leaves behind the memory of a genial, kindly life, full of good deeds, done in her quiet, unobtrusive way, which have gladdened many hearts and it could be truly said of her, as of the typical woman in Proverbs "Her children arise up and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praiseth her"

For the husband, in his extreme old age and feebleness, bereft of the companion of his life, the feeling of sympathy is very strong in the community, and for the daughter, Mrs W B. Lawson, of La Crosse, Wis, who arrived here too late to be recognized by the loving mother heart, while the many friends of Hon Parker Spofford here and elsewhere will grieve with him in his deep affliction as they learn of the sorrow which has fallen to his lot.

"Blessed are they that mourn, for they shall be comforted"

The funeral services will be held at the family residence on Monday at 2 P M

BASE BALL

The College Teams Having their Fall Practice—The Maine State College Team Meets Each of the Other Teams—The Bowdoins and Colbys to Play this week—The Strength of the Different Clubs

The college base ball nines of the State are now having their fall friendly contests which serve as preliminary practice for the championship games The Maine State College team which returned Saturday after a three days tour has met each of the others and has been beaten twice and each time by the usual one run which most always stands between them and victory In over one-half of the college contests in which they have been beaten it has been by one score They met the Bates nine at Lewiston Thursday and the catcher of the Bates being injured in the third inning they forfeited the game to the visitors the score being declared as usual 9 to 0

Friday the M S C nine went to Brunswick and were beaten by the Bowdoins four to three instead of five to four as published in the Associated Press despatches The two nines were very evenly matched each making only two errors outside of the battery The Bowdoins, however, got six hits off Rath while their opponents got only four off Davis For the Bowdoins the Bangor players seemed to carry off the honors Davis pitched a remarkable game and Boutelle covered first base with fourteen put outs one assist and no errors Dearth led the batting for the Bowdoins and Ray for the M S C's

Saturday afternoon the M S C nine was beaten eight to seven by the Colbys at Waterville This was one of the poorest and most unsatisfactory games ever played between the college teams Only four members of the M S C team filled their regular positions but those played no better than the men who were out of position The nines seemed to be endeavoring to see which could make the most errors and the visiting team had no difficulty in excelling in this direction They made fourteen errors and the Colbys made twelve The base hits were M S C 8 Colby [illegible] total [illegible] Several of the former team showed plainly their want of practice Small one of their players, showed [illegible] errors Larrabee led the batting for the Colbys and Rogers for the M S C team Rogers also caught finely while Larrabee and Goodwin of the Colbys did some excellent work

The games show that Colby and Bowdoin while hardly as strong as they were last spring, will require only a comparatively small amount of practice to come into fine trim The M S C team has yet to do a large amount of hard work to win games from either of its stronger rivals The Bates nine is no stronger than in the spring Considerable interest is manifested in the games between the Bowdoins and Colbys to be played this week the first at Waterville Wednesday and the second at Brunswick Saturday

AMUSEMENTS

The St Bernard Dogs

People who did not go to Union Hall last week to see Dr Sawtelle's splendid galaxy of St Bernard dogs and witness their remarkable evolutions missed a rare treat. While these animals owing to their enormous size could not perform as many feats as other dogs which have been exhibited here they were equally as intelligent and excited much more interest than those of all shapes and colors The dogs outside the exhibition were well worth going to see and almost every person who saw them was seized with a desire to own one of them The camp scene as performed by them was very unique and handsomely done Quite a number of our citizens are indebted to their trainer M B M Snow, for his kindly allowing them to closely examining the animals and for answering many questions about them.

Theodore Thomas

Theodore Thomas was born in the musical atmosphere of Hanover bred to music by a musical father, he was a concert soloist at six, came to New York at ten, was an admired prodigy in concerts for years after, traveled as a soloist during the distinguished engagements of Jenny Lind, Grisi and Mario and Madame Sontag, and then enlisted as a leader of orchestra under Arditi Subsequently he is found at the head of a chamber concert organization and finally the conductor of the famous orchestra, which, under varying circumstances and conditions, has come to be without a peer in the world The final master stroke which has enabled Mr Thomas to realize his long cherished ambition, has just been accomplished in the guarantee by a large number of wealthy citizens of New York, of a sufficient number of concerts in connection with Mr Thomas' regular New York and Brooklyn Philharmonic series, and his spring and fall tours and festival engagements, to give employment to his orchestra the whole year 'round He has accordingly engaged a permanent orchestra of sixty musicians who play under no other leader, and whom he has selected purely on their merits from the best musicians of the world Affording the highest compensation and continuous employment, and adopting a standard whose excellence is a guarantee of the highest ability, Mr. Thomas is enabled to command the services of the most skilled musicians of all countries, and his orchestra is now par excellence the finest over which he ever drew his baton

Houlton Fires.

HOULTON, Sept 26th

To the Editor of the Whig & Courier

Although the criticisms of "S" in the Commercial of the 25th are not more dangerous or of more importance than the barkings of the proverbial "yellow dog," I will stop to say that it ill becomes a man to criticize a fire department who was never known to take off his coat or lift his hand to save at a fire and whose yearly contributions to the town fund for the support of the fire department or anything else are paid by a poll tax.

A. W. INGERSOLL,
Chief Houlton Fire Department.

The store of A. E. Chase, at Brooks, was broken into Wednesday night, the safe blown open and robbed. The burglar obtained only about $40 in money and a large amount of notes and other securities. There is no trace of the burglars. The window of the office where the safe set was badly demolished.

The Farmers of Bangor and Vicinity.

[From the Maine Farmer.]

Recently I called on Mr. Elijah Smith, who lives in Bangor, on Ohio street, two miles from the city. Mr. Smith came to Bangor sixteen years ago, purchased fourteen acres of land and built a slaughter house, since then he has bought land on all sides until he has increased his farm from 14 acres to 300 acres. His land is situated on both sides of Kenduskeag stream. He has 250 acres of cultivated land, most of it in a high state of cultivation, as he manures his land very heavily or all that it needs. There are six large barns on his farms besides the stable, one of them is 52x110, with a cellar under the whole barn. He cuts 300 tons of hay, keeps 35 cows and heifers, and quite a number of nice horses and 34 hogs. This year he has 41 acres of grain, 25 acres in one field which looks well. He was mowing it when I called, with a "Eureka" mowing machine which worked finely; the cutter bar is six feet long and cuts between the wheels, the draft is directly behind the horses, one of the horses travels in the grain, a long yoke keeps the horses six feet apart. Among his stock I noticed a very fine grade Hereford bull, two years old, the best of his age I have seen; he weighs 1860 pounds, and girths seven feet and four inches. A year ago last October, Mr Smith sold seven head, all yearlings, which he sent to New Hampshire, and received $75 for each of them. He is also in the milk business, selling at present 66 gallons of milk per day to 100 or more customers in Bangor. He has all of the improved farm machinery, Kemp's manure spreader, etc.

Mr. Smith feeds out a large quantity of hay to his own stock. He makes hay a specialty; last year he sold over $2,000 worth. He has ten hired men at present, and this year he got all his hay in twenty-one days. His barns are kept very clean, and the tleups are sprinkled with saw dust. The stables are supplied with pure spring water, drawn by an "Eclipse" windmill into a large reservoir in one of his barns, from it it is conducted by pipes to the drinking troughs. Mr. Smith commenced on a small scale, but he has now become one of the largest farmers in Penobscot county. He is constantly enriching his farm, as he has manure from several stables in the city, besides a large amount made on the farm.

There are quite a number of others in Bangor and vicinity that are worthy of mention. I made such hurried calls that I did not have time to gather as much information as I would like. Mr. L. Tyler, of Bangor, about three miles out on the Carmel road, has a nice situation. He settled on his place in 1841 on 25 acres of land and kept tavern. He has increased it to 180 acres. There are three barns on the place, two 40x60 and one 40x54. Last year he cut 100 tons of hay, raised 300 bushels of oats, and 300 bushels of potatoes, and 350 bushels of apples. He keeps 12 head of horned cattle, 4 horse kind, 7 hogs. He makes hay a specialty. Last year he sold over a thousand dollars' worth of hay, and this year he sold nine hundred dollars' worth, besides keeping his stock.

Mr. M. L. Mills, of Bangor, has another good farm, one of the best on Essex street, four miles from the city. Cuts from 40 to 50 tons of hay, keeps 16 head of horned cattle, 2 horses. He sells $900 worth of milk per year, besides what milk and butter is used in the family. He has an acre of corn which looks well. M. L. Mills settled on his farm on Essex street fifty years ago. There was nothing but a winter road then leading to Bangor. It was a wilderness, no one on the road owned more than one horse, and there was only one yoke of oxen on the road at that time.

Another excellent farm on Essex street, is owned by Mr. C. Clark. He cuts from 100 to 125 tons of hay. He has 13 acres of grain this year which looks well. He keeps a large stock, 28 head of horned cattle and 5 horses.

Sale of The Puritan.

THE FAMOUS CRAFT SOLD AT AUCTION ON WEDNESDAY FOR $13,500 TO MR. BURGESS.

Half an hour before noon, the hour set for the sale of the yacht Puritan, the large auction room of John H. Draper & Co., No. 85 Front street, began to fill with bidders and lookers-on, says a New York despatch of Sept. 23. Among the yachting men were noticed J. R. Busk, owner of the Mischief; ex-Commodore T. B. Astin, now Tax Commissioner, Capt. Samuels; Charles A. Minton, Secretary of the New York Yacht Club; W. H. Dilworth, Commodore of the New Jersey Yacht Club; Capt. Vincent Mestre, formerly of the Spanish Navy, J. M. Wilson, Official Measurer of the New York Yacht Club; J. D. Fish, owner of the schooner Grayling; Chester Griswold and Edward Burgess. On the wall back of the auctioneer's desk was a wooden model of the Puritan's hull side by side with a water color painting representing the sloop under full sail. By noon the room was completely filled with the crowd and the elevators discharged full loads at every trip. Promptly at that hour Auctioneer Draper mounted the platform behind his desk, with Mr Burgess following him. "I'll offer you this sloop Puritan," said the auctioneer reading the inventory. "I don't think any further description is necessary to those who have read the papers. I want to say also that she will be absolutely sold. There has been no private sale whatever. Our terms are a deposit of $5000 to-day and the rest on or before next Friday. Let me introduce to you Mr. Edward Burgess, who designed her and can answer any and all questions you may care to ask. He is ready to take orders for dozens more just like her." Mr Burgess smiled cheerfully behind his spectacles and looked hopefully out over the sea of upturned faces. No questions being asked, he resumed his stand behind the auctioneer, and the latter opened the bidding with the usual formula, "How much am I offered for this sloop yacht Puritan?"

"$5000 and the privilege of putting her in Central Park," shouted the well known voice of Joseph J. O'Donohue from the rear of the crowd, and everybody laughed.

"Good for you, Joe," answered the auctioneer, "that's the biggest bet you've had for many a year." Then the figures went up slowly and only at the expenditure of much vocal force on Draper's part—$8000, $10,000 $12,000, and there they hung for what seemed an age.

"No price at all, gents," expostulated the auctioneer, and the smile faded from Mr Burgess's face. Thirteen thousand dollars was reached after much travail, and the assertion from the desk that "she ought to bring $30,000." Ten minutes of continued effort brought the bids up to $13,000. Mr. O'Donohue came in again on $250 more, and at 12.13 o'clock the "one, two, three" of the auctioneer was finished, the hammer fell, and it was announced that the Puritan was sold to Edward Burgess for $13,500. A murmur and something almost approaching a hiss went around the room. "That's encouraging for American yachting," said a well-known designer of sloops. Mr. Burgess stood his ground before the onslaught of reporters, but had little to say. "I do not represent the owners," said he, in response to an inquiry from The Journal's correspondent. "I am acting for a single person. Oh, yes, her sloop rig will be retained. No, she will not race the Genesta again in the near future. She will be laid up immediately in Boston. She cost $26,000 to build, and the 41 tons of lead on her alone can be sold for $3000 at any moment."

There was much astonishment at the smallness of the price that the sloop brought, for, as one yachtsman said, although built in a hurry, it does not follow that she was poorly built, and the fact that she has successfully withstood the racking and straining of all these races proves her to be in every way sound and strong. She has undergone a severer experience as any ordinary yacht would encounter in five years, but has not suffered from any of the influences of age. Commodore Dilworth of the New Jersey Yacht Club took down the water color of the Puritan from the wall and asked Mr. Burgess to put his autograph on it, as he wanted it for his club house.

LETTER CARRIERS.

All letters are delivered free by carriers when addressed to street and number. People should inform their correspondents of above and have their letters addressed accordingly.

Persons leaving their address at the General Delivery can also have their letters sent, but it is much more convenient to have the street and number on, and they will be delivered earlier than if the same is put on at the office. Carriers make two deliveries daily, the first trip supplying the extremes of their routes.

Collections are made morning, noon and evening in season for important mails.

Holidays the Carrier's Window will be open for the delivery of letters from 8½ to 9½ A. M., and from 8 to 8½ P. M. Sundays from 8½ to 9½ A. M.

Any irregularities in the Carrier's department should be reported to the office.

ENVELOPES.

No additional charge will be made for printing the name and request to return, across the left hand upper corner of the envelopes furnished by the Post Office Department, (samples of which may be seen at the Cashier's window) when ordered in lots of not less than 500.

A request for the return of a letter to the writer, if unclaimed within thirty days or less, written or printed, with the writer's name, post office and State, across the left end of the envelope, on the face side, will be complied with.

The public are earnestly recommended to procure stamped envelopes with printed return request, as the expense is less, and letters thus endorsed, if not delivered to the person addressed, are returned to the writer free of charge.

First class envelopes of above furnished at $22 20 per thousand.

Stamps cut from Stamped Envelopes can not be used to prepay postage. The use of such stamps is punishable by a fine of fifty dollars.

Stamped Envelopes, spoiled in directing, are redeemed at this office.

WARREN LELAND,

whom everybody knows as the successful manager of the Largest Hotel Enterprises

of America, says that while a passenger from New York on board a ship going around Cape Horn, in the early days of emigration to California, he learned that one of the officers of the vessel had cured himself, during the voyage, of an obstinate disease by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Since then Mr. Leland has recommended Ayer's Sarsaparilla in many similar cases, and he has never yet heard of its failure to effect a radical cure.

Some years ago one of Mr. Leland's farm laborers bruised his leg. Owing to the bad state of his blood, an ugly scrofulous swelling or lump appeared on the injured limb. Horrible itching of the skin, with burning and darting pains through the lump, made life almost intolerable. The leg became enormously enlarged, and running ulcers formed, discharging great quantities of extremely offensive matter. No treatment was of any avail until the man, by Mr. Leland's direction, was supplied with Ayer's Sarsaparilla, which allayed the pain and irritation, healed the sores, removed the swelling, and completely restored the limb to use.

Mr. Leland has personally used for Rheumatism, with entire success; and after careful observation, declares that, in his belief, there is no medicine in the world equal to it for the cure of Liver Disorders, Gout, the effects of high living, Salt Rheum, Sores, Eruptions, and all the various forms of blood diseases.

We have Mr. Leland's permission to invite all who may desire further evidence in regard to the extraordinary curative powers of Ayer's Sarsaparilla to see him personally either at his mammoth Ocean Hotel, Long Branch, or at the popular Leland Hotel, Broadway, 27th and 28th Streets, New York. Mr. Leland's extensive knowledge of the good done by this unequalled eradicator of blood poisons enables him to give inquirers much valuable information.
